

A Chronicle of the Pride of Wall Seniors June, 2009 - June, 2010

June...At our 32nd Anniversary Luncheon, at the Barclay, Deputy Mayor George Newberry swears in our new officers, President Joe Roma, Vice-President Joan Campbell, Recording Secretary Arlene Quigg, Corresponding Secretary Arlene Schmidt, Treasurer Elmer Myers, Jr., and Sergeant at Arms Mary Burne; and Janet Genaro entertains us with music and dance...Babe Morrison reports that 20 of us enjoyed bowling at Sea Girt Lanes...Barbara Crosson passes...85 celebrate our Super Seniors Birthday Party and Ian Gallagher entertains us...Therese McKenzie passes...

July...We are invited to a 4th of July barbecue at Sunrise at Wall...Hilda White passes...After a rain delay, we have our picnic at the Oak Tree Lodge, with 77 in attendance...The Coast Star highlights Shirley Spayd as a volunteer at Wall United Methodist Church...and a skydiver, too...

August...Elmer and Ruth Myers bring the ice cream and Cliff Gibson brings the carrot sheet cake to 75 who enjoyed an ice-cream social...

September...Our 1st Meeting opens with a treat from Meridian Sub-Acute via Valente, 120 attend...Rita Huisman, former owner of the Barclay, passes away...A full bus goes to the Tropicana to see "Fame"...The Coast Star pictures Mary Burne on the Sea Girt boardwalk...George and Jeanette Latshaw are proud as their niece Jennifer informs us of homecare options...Lee Sheehan sits in for Ruth Brant as Hospitality Chair...Robert Schenk R. Ph., speaks about his RxCheck program...

October...Ray Walton informs us of Census Day, 2010...The Sheriff's Office speaks on ACES...The Steering Committee and the Advisory Committee begin a study of our need for space...Diane Resnick of Tower Lodge speaks about planning ahead and treats us to carrot cake...Coast Star photographer Sueanne Goss loses her son Mark...

November...We fill 2 buses as we trip to Hunterdon for a Dinner-Show...Ray Walton delivers our food donation to West Belmar Church food bank...Alex Binder tells us of Visiting Physician Services...The Coast Star catches Eileen O'Connell at St. Rose Holiday Boutique...

December...Ruth Brant is back...Joe Roma appoints Jane Rowe as "Welcome Lady" for regular meetings, to be aided by Mary Fanning and Mary McGill...A bus takes us at the Trop to see "Miracle on 34th Street"...The Old Mill School's 4th Grade enchants us...The Barclay is the scene of our Winter Luncheon, as the Town treats us and Ian Gallagher entertains us...180 attend...Membership stands at 219.

January...Inez Boyan presents the Sea Girt Women's Club donation to Manasquan 1st Aid...June Miller passes...Allenwood School Chorus entertains us...Mary Byrne enjoys egg nog at Sea Girt Chamber of Commerce...

February...Howard Stout passes...Ruth Fornarotto wins door prize at Wall Library Movie Marathon...Emma DeCuir of Oak Tree Lodge passes...Lillian Byron, Super Senior, passes...Vincent Rible passes...West Belmar 4th graders sing for us...

March...114 Central School 4th Graders sing for us...Some attend Wall HS ROTC spaghetti dinner...Pearl Bauman, Rose Hess et al. are photographed at exercise class by Suanne Goss for the Coast Star...A bus takes us to the Trop to see "Crocodile Rock"...Rev. Harvey Malick informs that he cannot attend any more meetings...

April...2 busses take us to Dutch Apple to see "Meet Me in St. Louis"...John Rowe and Joan Jannarro implement new policy for "lottery trips" so that those not picked for a trip will get priority for "stand-by" on the next trip...30 attend Senior Swinging Prom at WHS...Lee Sheehan loses her husband, Michael...Walter Gratton and Joan DeSarno begin their work as Nominating Committee...Claire Griffin passes...Joan Kennealy speaks out in the Coast Star...Babe Morris and Gerri O'Connor are photographed in the art class by the Coast Star...

May...Anne Ernst passes...Rose Pollara, Super Senior, passes...President Roma appoints Jim Fanning Chaplain to succeed Rev. Harvey Malick effective May 18, and Eva Lawson Program Chairperson to succeed Charlie Nicosia effective June 2...The Nominating Committee recommends incumbents Arlene Schmidt, Jane Rowe and Nancy Fowler for reelection as Corresponding Secretary, Financial Secretary and Sergeant at Arms respectively...They are unanimously reelected by the membership...Ray Walton tells us we gave more than 1000 pounds of food to the West Belmar Food Bank...Membership stands at 237...Marilyn Barry passes...

June...At our 33rd Anniversary Luncheon, at the Barclay, Arlene Schmidt is sworn in as Recording Secretary, Jane Rowe as Financial Secretary and Nancy Fowler as Sergeant at Arms...Janet Genaro entertains us with music and dance...